The adventurous spirit and robust character of the old west lives on in the pride and success of the Carter Cowboys.

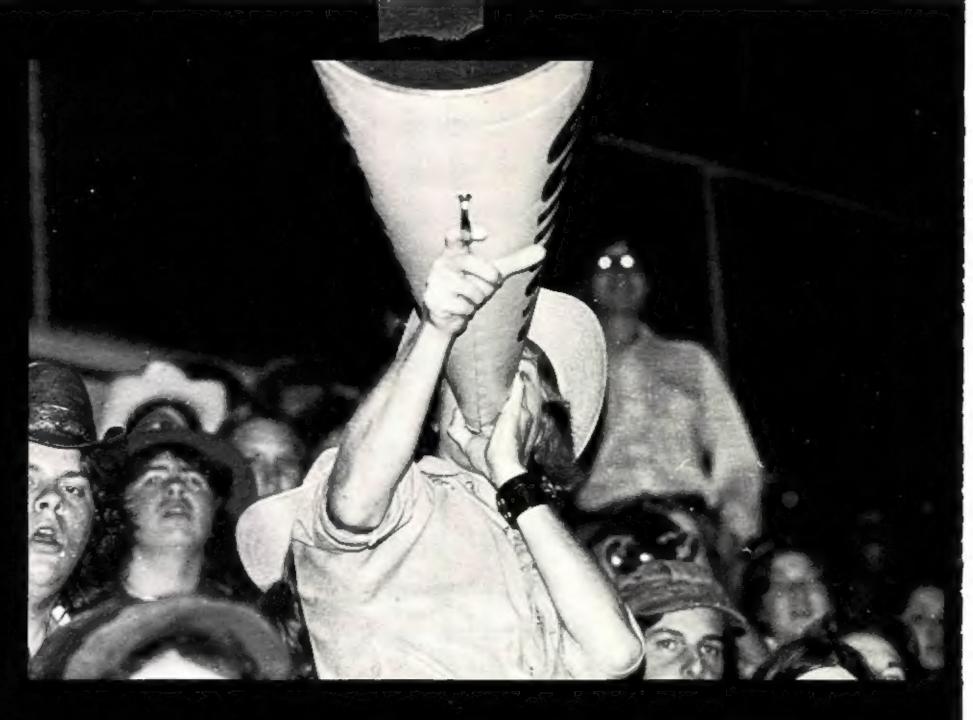

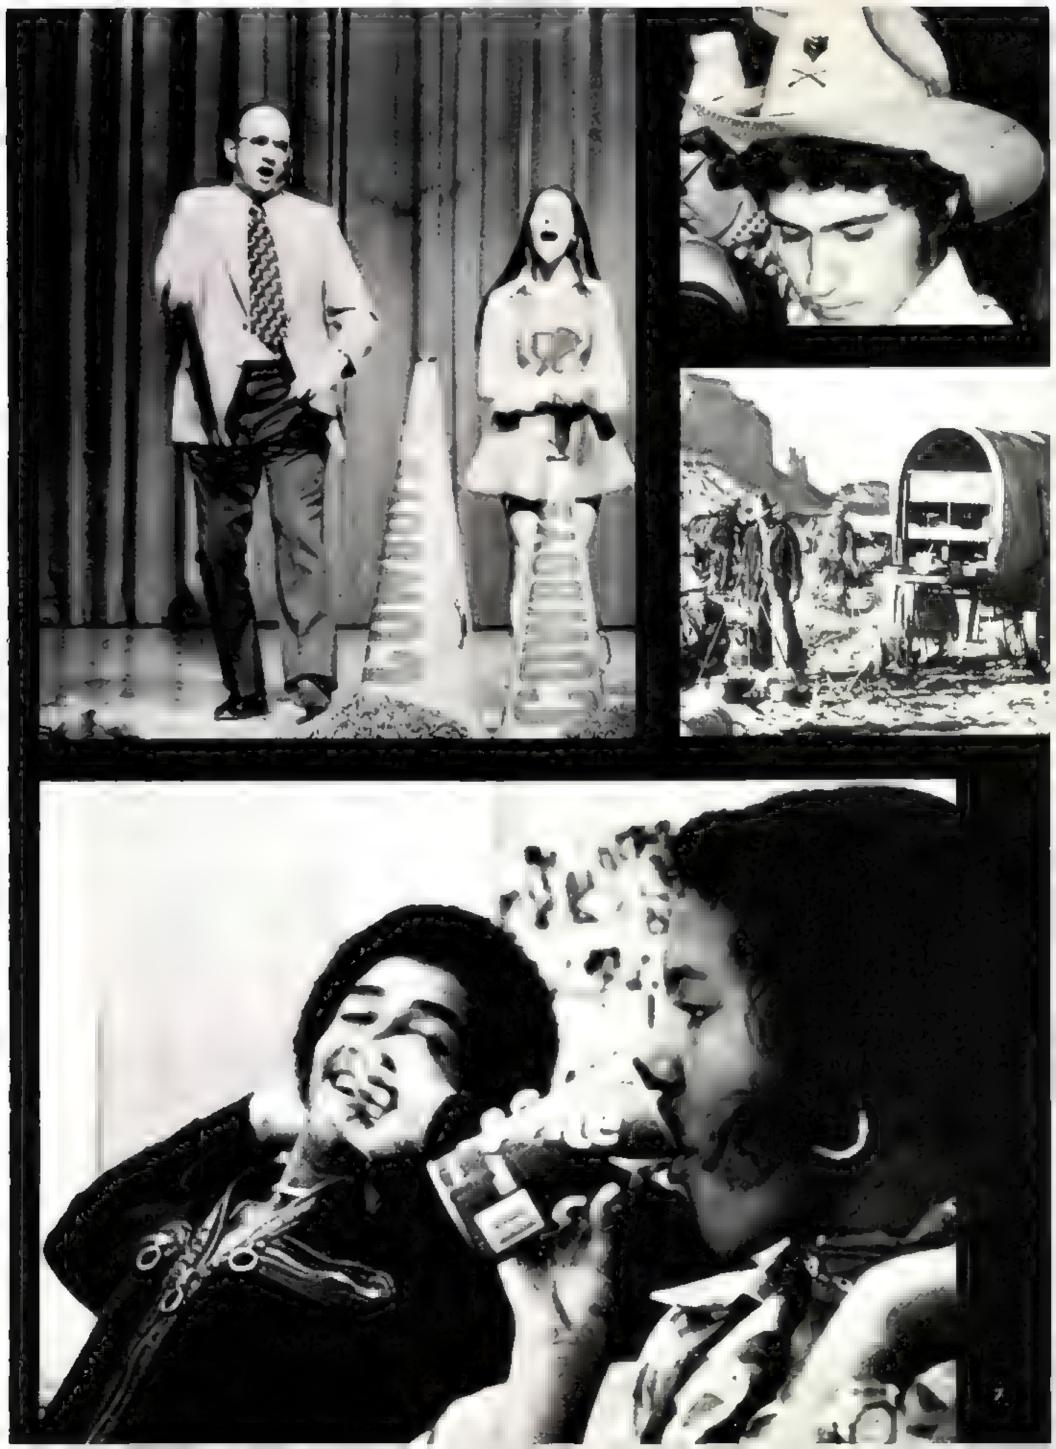

The Cowboys strive for individual participation

Pursuing their goals with determination, the Cowboys are able to achieve their undertaking.

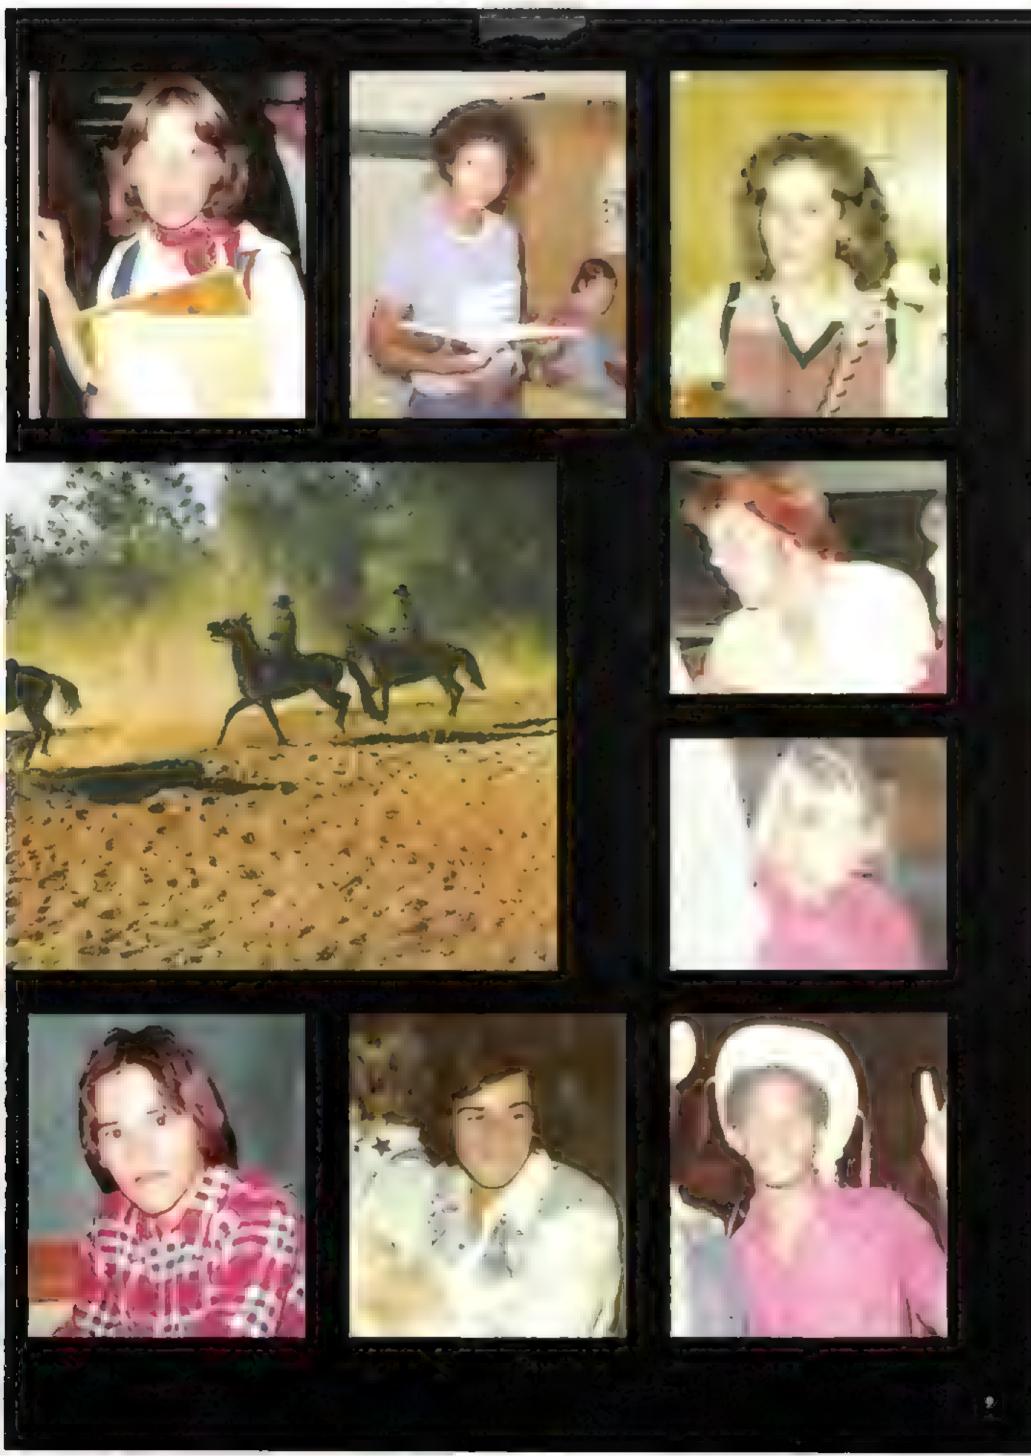

Carter is the place to make long-lasting friendships.

Alone or in a crowd, the cowboys shine on.

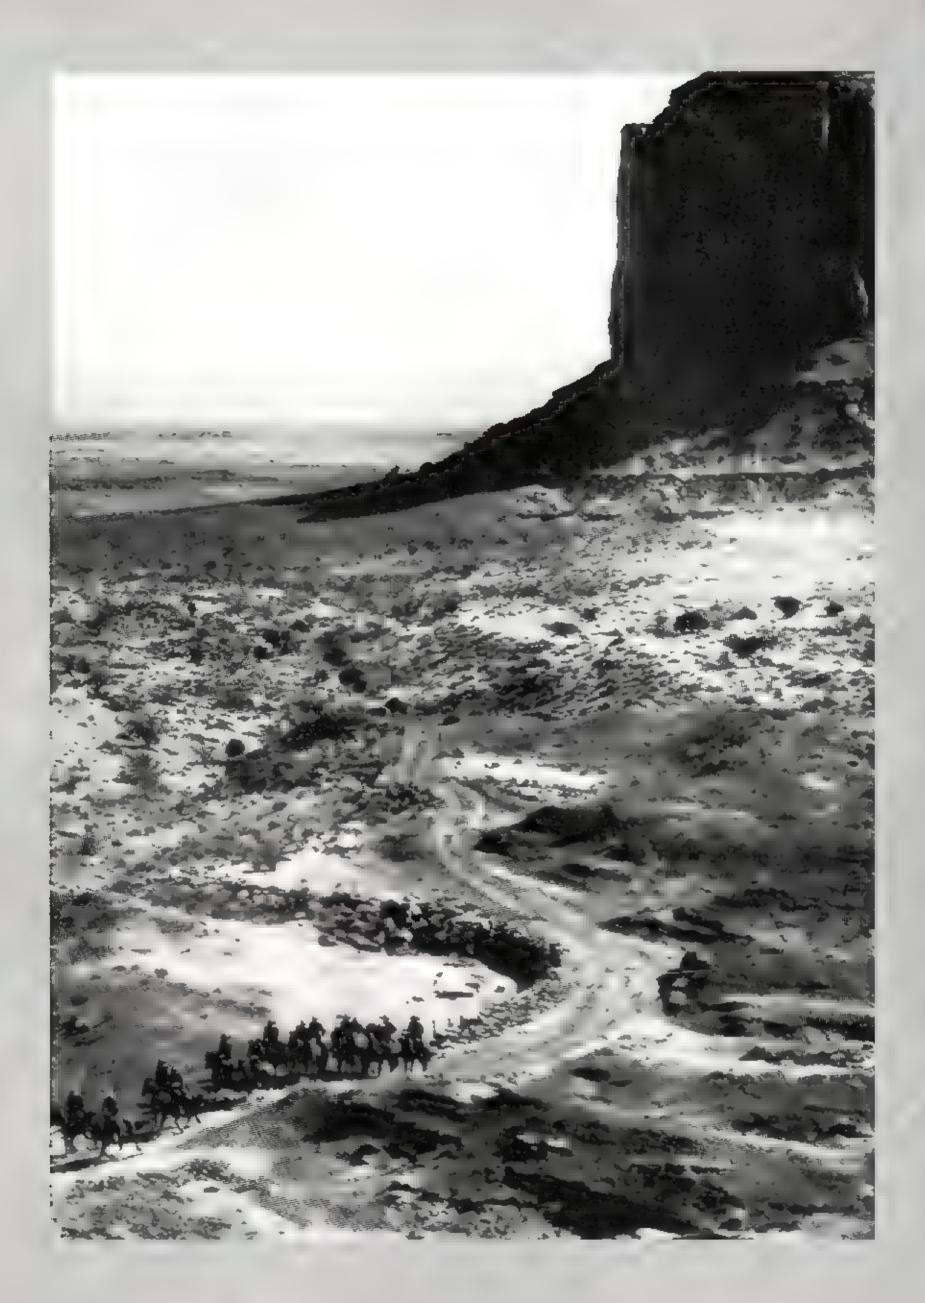

As in the old west, each day brings new challenges.

PANG-

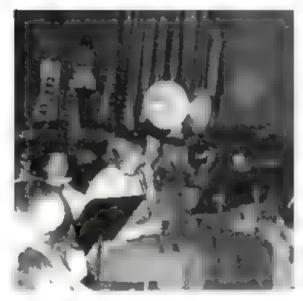

SPIRIT EXPLOSION OF '76

We're number one! We're number one!

Sharon and Leslie move to the groove.

Paul demonstrates his all-region style.

The posse awaits the spirit stick.

Tim and Mark lead the revival.

What more can 'ya say?

Pucker Power!

Carter never did give nothin' to the Tin Man!

We want the spirit stick! We want the spirit stick!

The majorettes shake it for their men.

The rules don't say we can't bring spears!

Aw heck, we do this every week!

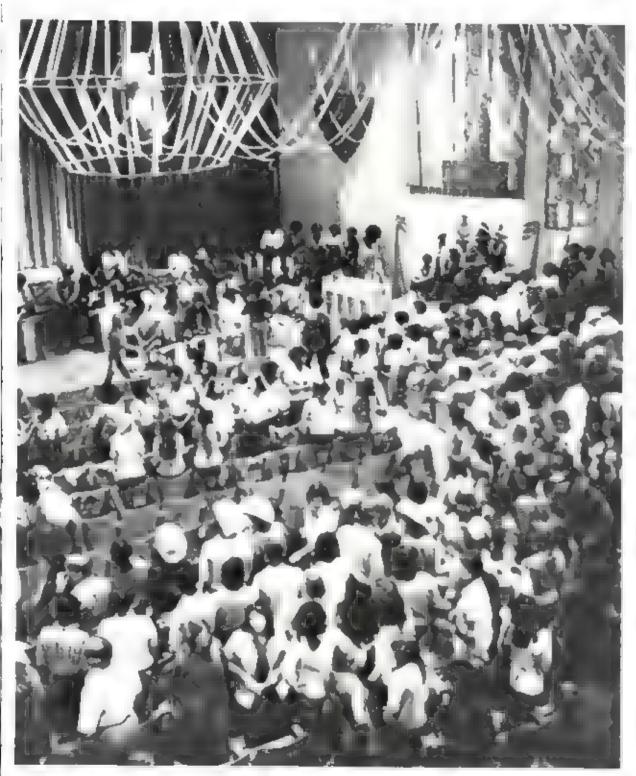

That's class, guys!

Our predictions are always right.

Carter Cowboys get ready to cage the Bears!

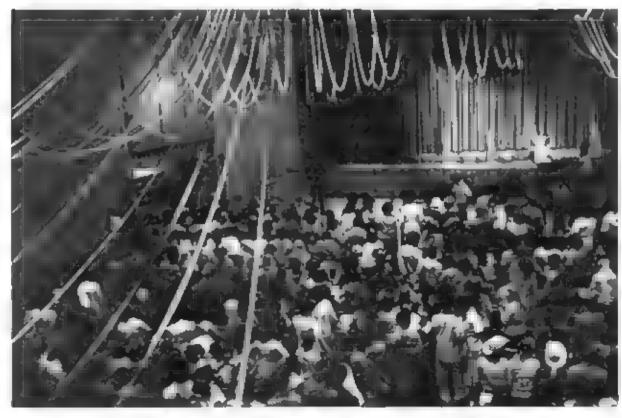

Dy-no-mite!!!

Juan Blanco celebrates homecoming with a little too much tequilla!

The spotlight is supposed to be on Bo, not the Bear!

It's at times like this that I'm glad I use Ban Roll-on.

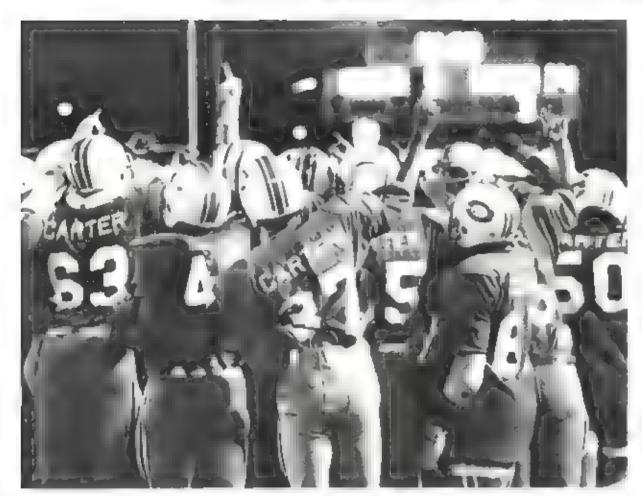

A typical Cowboy anticipates another victory.

Don't cry Janet, you'll be a Sr. next year.

ENTHUSIASM AT THE GAMES

Fire it up, C. C., fire it up!

Carla shows her never-ending Cowboy spirit.

Hey-oh, Hey-o-o-o-Oh!

"Merrily we roll along" - oops! Wrong song!

How come Cyndy can have an electric blanket and we can't?

Cowboy football games are usually happy occasions, but there are always those moments of pain and frustration that remove the smiles from our faces. Carter spirit has always enabled the team to come through in the clutch. This success is evidenced by Carter's arrival in the Texas Stadium for the quarter-finals.

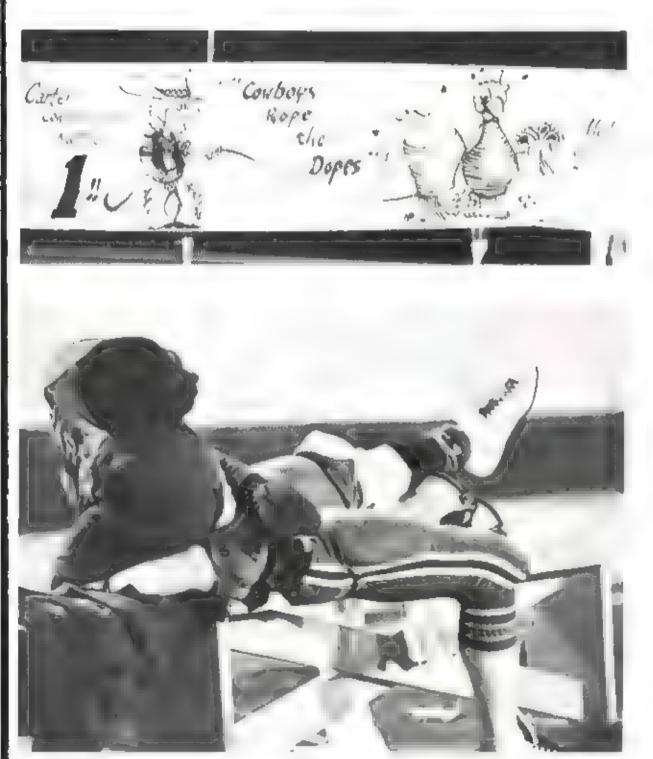

Kick - - -, Cowboys!

I wish she wouldn't pull so hard!

Nurse!

Oh no! I just remembered I forgot to turn my car lights off.

Silent silhouette.

Well, if Debra doesn't want to do the Bunny Hop, she doesn't have to.

Kimball ain't no big thaing!

Ho! Ho! Ho!?

HARD WORK AND GOOD FUN

Hot Potato!!

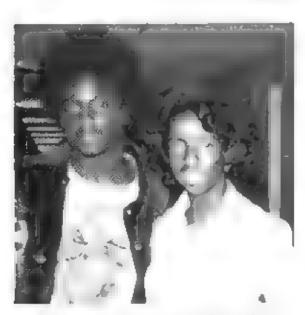

David does an excellent imitation of Ms. Dalby.

What's going on back there?

A serious student?

This is the kind of work I like!

I can't believe he ate the whole thing!

If she makes us sing this song one more time, I'm gonna walk out.

He didn't wear the right shade of brown today.

They'll never suspect me.

"The Palm" does his impression of "The Fonz."

The Wrangler staff does it again!

You want me to what?!

A Carter Cowboy after a hard day's night at Shakey's.

Tom lectures to his followers.

Freeze!

Some guys have all the luck.

Alright, let's humor Ben. He's the King of the Hill.

What's in that box that's so interesting boys?

He said THAT, did he?!

Aw, come on guys, get off my case.

Who put the hot sauce on my cupcake?

Yea, it's a good picture, but I don't think you should show it to Carla.

"3 beers plus 3 more beers = 1 six pack."

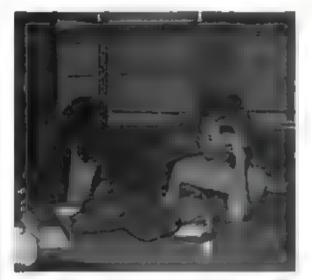

"88¢ for a lousy bag of Mortons chips!

Just think, someday we'll be seniors, too. I can't wait!

Do you see what I see?

What other neat stuff have 'ya got in that purse?

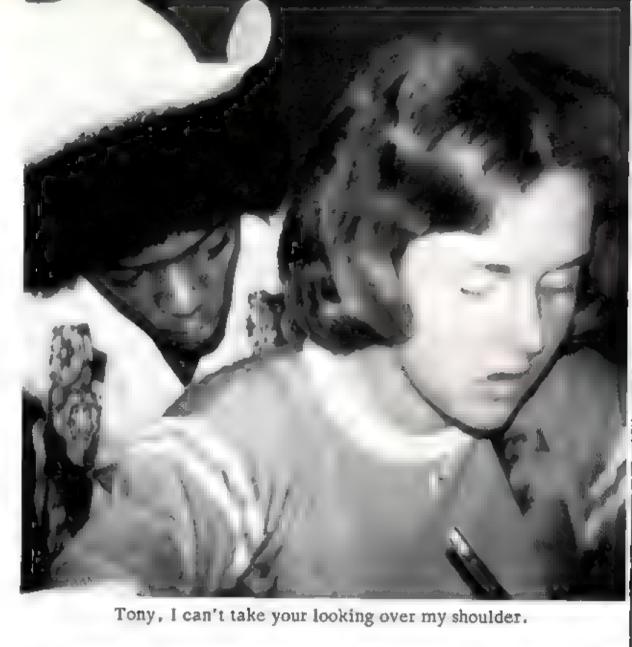

Oh, I know I could do it, if only Barry were here.

Calicos Line-Up

Not soy-bean burgers?

Where's the blanket?

The bus broke down again!

That's all I get for my birthday?

Let's flip for it.

You wanta try and say that again?

Are you sure you added right?

Was that the 8:05, 8:15, or 8:20

What did I step in?

What's an elevator ticket?

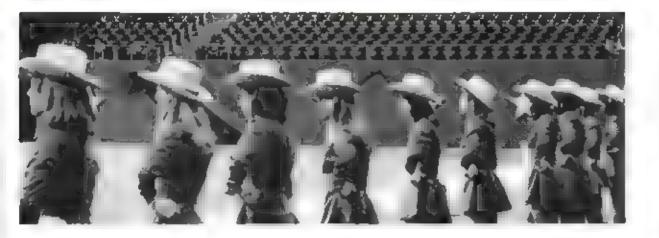

Now that's a CHEWY brownie!

Simply beautiful.

Future Homemakers of America

Burt, you look serious? How's left field

Who says we're going together?

What's this action?

Grapes?

Let's hear it for those high kicks!

I use Gleem for whiter, brighter teeth.

Gosh, I'm glad the posse wants me.

He stood me up!

Peek-a-boo!

Thank God, I'm a country boy!

I made a "C" in study hall?

Now, would I hurt Jimeye?

Don't let the shy ones fool you.

I'd be great in movies, right?

Home of the Number One Cowboys.

Come and get me, Baby!

I SWEAR it wasn't me.

He just didn't draw fast enough!

Regina models her letter jacket.

Mr. Rollings dances with the queen.

Beverly Mitchell receives the honor of Junior Princess.

Shari becomes center of attention as Sophomore Princess.

Queen Melva Mitchell proudly accepts a dozen red roses.

Rhonda looks happy enough!

MOODS

Moods, like people, are complex and diverse. Joy and disappointment, friendliness and thoughtfulness are only a few of the feelings which express the special gift of emotion. Moods can be expressed through the use of creative photography which lends a more intimate tone and visual conception.

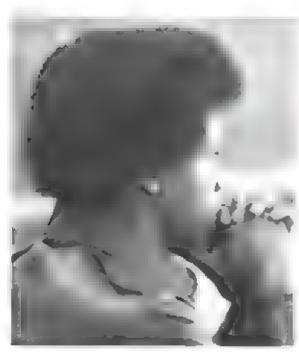

The Indignities of Nu-Nu Initiation

Wonder if I can get anyone to carry my books.

Actually, I kind of like this new hair color!

Don't you say a word!

How about a kiss, fellas?

I want to go home!

76-77 Cheerleader Tryouts

Just think, if I make it I'll get to practice every morning!

Hey Melinda, how about taking a great weight off my shoulders?

How cosy!

Now we vill all yell, ant like it!

I can fly!

O.K., you can let me down now
. . . Danny?

What do you mean, stand up? I'm stuck!

After Hours

Blaming it all on the nights at Shakey's.

Pam spends her free time in a tree.

Girls' Soccer Team gives it a try.

The Fonz stood both of us up?

I'm ready to do some fancy spending at Sport-A-Rama.

"The name of the dance is the Peppermint Twist!"

Flowers Say "Love" on Valentine's Day

Girls just adore me.

You can't beat door-to-door delivery.

Young love, ain't it grand!

Mr. Rollings gets a carnation from a secret admirer.

Maybe this way no one will recognize me!

Who did you say you saw Tim with last weekend?

And now for something completely different . . .

That couldn't be Ms. Windmiller in a dress!

This can't be all, I just ate ONE!

I used to wish I could sing, now I wish he could!

I've got to make it to 3rd period!

Just think, someday I'll be a senior too!

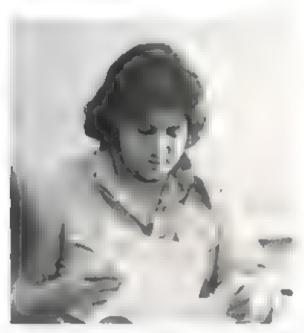

Hey Marty, I think Hag forgot his Footguard again!

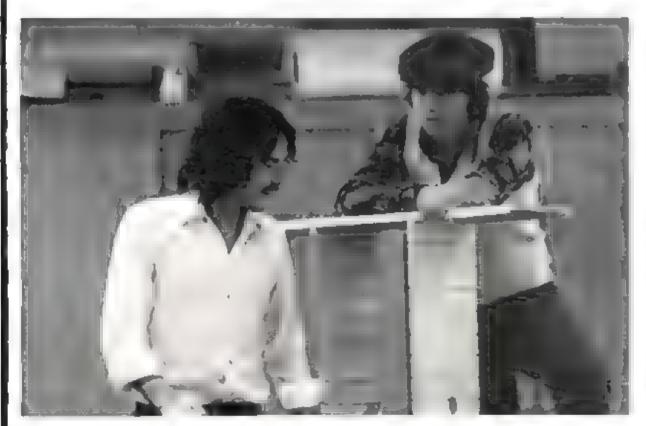

Now, what does Burt Reynolds have that I don't have?

Milk is a natural!

Wait 'til Ms. Dalby reads this two-page paper!

I, Judge Wigand, sentence you to one week of hard labor, picking up trays in the lunchroom!

Flag Day at Carter High School

November eleventh marked the day that all schools in the D.I.S.D. demonstrated their patriotism by honoring the United States flag and, this year, the new bicentennial flag. At Carter, the R.O.T.C., band and drill team marched together, adding color and formality to the flag raising ceremony, after which the entire student body joined in the reciting of the national anthem.

Seniors watch the raising of the bicentennial flag with a special pride.

Steve Bell presents his speech honoring the veterans of our country.

Carter High - home of pride and spirit.

Bicentennial Commemorations

Jay Hall, Ruann Christian and Tony Broadnax appeared, as members of the Junior Player's Guild, in the historical presentation of "America in Song and Verse."

Bicentennial Cups - how patriotic!

Special thanks to: Mark Foster and Jenny Earls The 1976 Senior Play, "Up the Down Staircase," was one of the most successful in Carter history. Both the audience and cast enjoyed the humorous recreation of the 50's decade, especially the greased hair, long skirts, bobby socks and bright red lipstick. Members of the cast agree that, in addition to long hours of rehearsal and gobbled Jack-inthe-Box suppers, this play has meant a wonderful experience which will not soon be forgotten.

I don't think I walk that funny.

Joe, I'm going to take your lollipop away.

Renee says a silent prayer while studying her script.

Where did he find these gorgeous clothes?

Tim poses with Coolidge High's favorite teachers.

Please, come back! I'll try to do better!

This strawberry shake looks like Pepto-Bismol.

Have I learned my lines yet? Are you kidding?

"You're sixteen, so beautiful, and you're . . ."

Hey Barrett! I wanna go to the

What's he got that I don't?

Dan practices his new "MEAN" image.

I'm sorry Miss Barrett, I just don't date older women!

If you don't let me have a puff, I'll tell!

Some people are such hams!

Harry takes a break.

Oh, up your nose with a rubber hose!

This armadillo has really got CLASS!

If you make me pose for one more picture!

Fond memories of riots which never occurred . . .

. . . and those that did!

Who took my Ding-Dong?

Now, was that twice to the left, or right?

Elaine poses for the cameraman.

Yawn!

Just you wait!

I've got to have a pass to the men's room!

Caught in the Act!

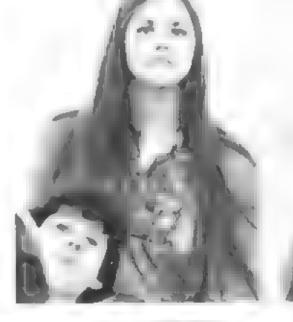

My WHAT'S unzipped?

Nuh-uh! No one fools the woman!

Bet my braces are shinier than yours!

Melinda working?!

Too bad, the teacher's sick on the day her essay is due!

Blacula! All you can see are his bright, shiny teeth!

It must be evolution, they are on all fours.

Jean, it can't be that bad!

AS THE STOMACH TURNS

Robin, you know I'd like to take you to a nicer place, but . . .

Yeah? Then what happened?

How do you get peanut butter off of the roof of your mouth?

You mean you didn't know what they make that juice out of?

Why don't they have a warning over the door?

Quick! Which way to the restroom?

THE FINAL WORD

Sr.'s 76 are the best, Sr.'s 76 are the best, Sr.'s 76

If you repeat what I just said, I swear I'll deny it!

I came to choir early to vocalize for 45 minutes!

Graduation can't come too soon!

O.K., who took 25 of my 50 note cards?

I've got ten trophies!

I just can't understand you, Sam!

COWBOYS VICTORIOUS

The Carter Cowboys, behind the running of Malcolm Jones, beat the Spruce Apaches for what was going to be one of many Cowboy victories of the season.

In the first half it looked as if the Cowboys were going to be in for a match when Spruce took a 6-0 lead. But Carter was able to get on the board by the half when Ray Paul put 3 points on the scoreboard for Carter.

The second half was all Carter's from the very beginning as on the opening kick off Malcolm Jones ran all the way back for a Carter touchdown. With the extra point good, the scoreboard read 10-9. The tough Carter defense held the Apaches scoreless for a final 17-9 victory.

Carter all fired up.

Carter's own three stooges.

You go your way and I'll go mine.

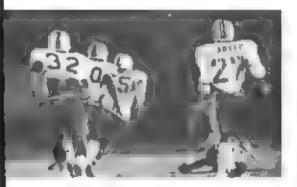

Malcolm takes a quick break.

"Hey Guys, I got first dibs at the John."

"No pictures please, my hair is a mess."

Cowboys move on.

I wonder what's for dinner?

Cowboys move toward goal line.

CARTER SKUNKS BEARCATS

Speed merchant Bo Taylor, Malcolm Jones, bulldog John Newhouse, and a defense spurred by noseguard Donnie White wrecked the Bearcats plans, 21-0, Friday night at Sprague Field.

The victory was Carter's second one in a row.

The game was all but a safe one with Carter losing 3 of the 6 fumbles they managed to compile.

But one in the second half by Jones was recovered in the Sherman end zone by Taylor for a Cowboy TD.

After a sluggish first half Taylor ignited his teammates by streaking 86 yards with the second half kickoff and Ray Paul added the extra point.

The other 7 points came in the quarter with a Malcolm Jones run and Paul's extra point kick.

Sherman was far out classed offensively, gaining only 48 net yards rushing and 46 more passing, compared to the Cowboys' 308-yard total.

Sherman's deepest penetration came in the final moments of the game but the strong Carter defense held the Bearcat's scoreless.

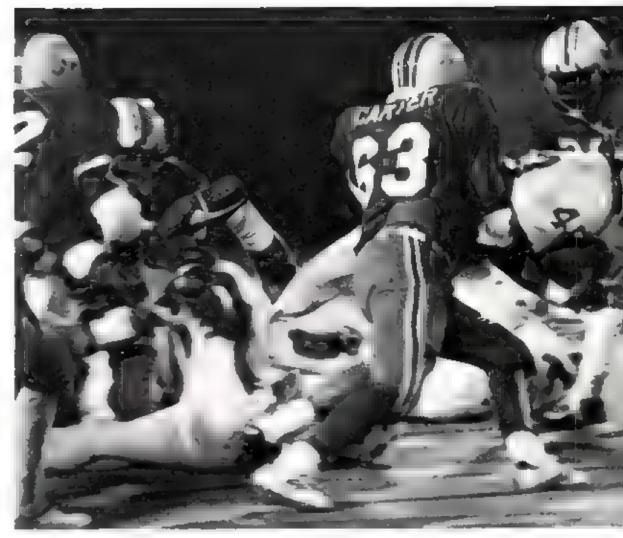

Bo goes for T.D.

COWBOYS FALL TO BOBCATS

The Carter Cowboys were defeated by the unlikeable but tough San Angelo Central Bobcats 24-7.

The Cowboys opened the scoring in the first quarter, driving 67 yards, the big gainer being a 44-yard scamper by Bo Taylor. Marty Morrison capped off the drive with a five yard scoring pass to Derwin Dukes. Ray Paul kicked the extra point to give Carter a 7-0 lead.

Carter almost extended their lead in the second period as Bruce Chambers took a San Angelo punt and darted all the way for an apparent touchdown. Unfortunately, the touchdown was nullified due to a clipping penalty.

Melvin Lark rushes in.

Paul puts the ball up.

Taylor crashes through.

Newhouse limps over.

Posse gives Spirit.

Marty gets another one off.

CARTER STOMPS BULLDOGS

Carter's third victory came Friday night Oct. 3, against the North Dallas Bulldogs.

Carter's first score was by fullback John Newhouse. The point after was good by Ray Paul. Then only seconds later Marty Morrison scored on a run. The red offense saw their last bit of action as David Haggerman caught a touchdown pass from Marty Morrison. Then, with the help of Derwin Dukes, Robert Canady, Terry Hamilton, Benny Medlin, Rickey Scott, and Will Johnson, the Cowboys ended the night with a 61-0 victory.

Offense prepares for battle.

Is that Howard Cossell?

Huddleston charges on.

VIKINGS TAKE LOSS

The Cowboys crunched the Pinkston Vikings 41-8 in an easy upset.

Surprisingly, the Vikings went to the board first on a 6 yard pass completion then captured a 2 point conversion to take an 8-0 lead.

But then Dukes and Newhouse started up, Duke with a touchdown and Newhouse blocking a punt. From there Taylor raced into the end zone to give Carter a 14-8 lead.

After that, Malcolm Jones, Morrison, and Canady all finished the evening with a socre.

SUNSET FALLS

It was a cold night at Sprague Field and an even colder one for the Sunset Bisons as they lost to the mighty Carter Cowboys.

Bo Taylor scored the first two touchdowns filling the dual role of receiver and running back. Other stars of this game were Malcolm Jones who scored on the third TD of the night behind the tough Carter offensive line led by Greg McKay and Melvin Lark. Jones also got a T.D. in the second half when he ran from 43 yards out. Durwin Dukes also scored against the Bison defense which seemed to be all but tough on that cold Thursday night.

COWBOYS MARCH ON

Holding on to the ball had to be Carters biggest problem of the night as they lost the ball 5 out of 7 times.

The Cowboy defense opened the scoring on the game's second play when the Adamson pitch-out went astray in their end zone where the Cowboys grabbed it up for a fast 6 points.

Following Morrison's two touchdown passes in the first half, the Leopards got on the scoreboard with a touchdown of their own but still trailed the Cowboys at the half 15-6.

Carter continued to take control of the game as Morrison scored on a run from the one. Then Taylor raced from the twelve for 6 points.

The defense then added the final score as Terry Hamilton intercepted a screen pass.

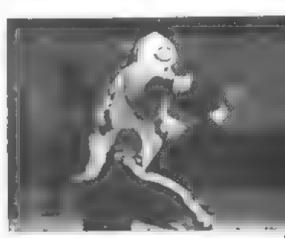

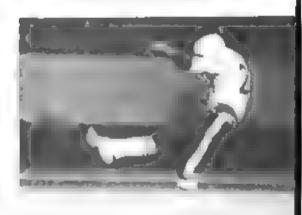

Taylor on the carry.

"Who's that good looking chick over there?"

Newhouse on the run.

"Calicos aren't so good."

Bo Taylor picks up yardage for Cowboys.

Morrison lets loose.

Paul puts one through.

"I saw the ball a minute ago."

COWBOYS RIDE MUSTANGS

In a game that matched two undefeated teams in district play, the Carter Cowboys ran all over the Roosevelt Mustangs, 42-6, October 31.

The Cowboys had control of the game from the very beginning as they drove 73 yards in 13 plays ending in a 1 yard run by John Newhouse. The Cowboys scored once more in the first quarter as Malcolm Jones raced 33 yards into the end zone to give Carter a 12-0 lead.

The second quarter was even better as the Cowboys added 22 points to the scoreboard, through the efforts of Bo Taylor, Donnie White, Shannon Little, Ray Paul, and Marty Morrison.

The defenseless Mustangs were only able to score late in the game with a 17 yard pass to ruin Carter's chances for a shutout game.

Carter makes grab.

COMBOAS SOCK SOC

Back home at Sprague Field the Cowboys defeated the South Oak Cliff Golden Bears by a score of 21-13.

After a scoreless first quarter the Cowboys broke loose with the first score a 3 yard pass from Marty Morrison to Shannon Little.

Later on in the second quarter Lloyd Carrington recovered a Golden Bear fumble at the S.O.C. 28 yard line.

Seven plays later, Morrison dove in from the one to give the Cowboys a 14-0 halftime lead.

The Cowboys continued to dominate second half play as the defense continued to keep the Bear offense in check throughout the third period. Morrison's second touchdown came in the third period as he carried from six yards out.

The Golden Bears came to life in the fourth period as they drove for their first T.D. with the help of a few 15-yard penalties.

Only seconds later S.O.C. recovered a Carter fumble at the Cowboy 20. They scored on the next play and the Cowboys lead had been decreased to 21-13.

A picture paints a thousand words.

Taylor goes for score.

Poke Power!

Morrison's back!

Who you calling a @*#1+$@?

Morrison's parents look on.

Morrison puts one up.

Carter's Seniors prepare to mob Kimball.

5th STRAIGHT DISTRICT CROWN

For 5 straight years in a row the Carter Cowboys have emerged 12-

AAAA champs.

The Knights opened up the scoring early in the first period as Kimball's Lynn Keeling ran 62 yards for the first score of the game. The Knights, however, were unable to score any more against the tough Carter defense.

Bo Taylor was the first scorer for Carter as he dashed 5 yards. The extra point was good and the game was tied up 7 apiece.

The Cowboys took the lead as quarterback Marty Morrison went over from 9 yards out to give the Cowboys a 14-7 lead.

The team didn't stop there, as Carter's Malcolm Jones raced 76 yards for the score.

The score remained the same until fullback John Newhouse sped by for an 83 yard run and a 28-7 victory.

COWBOYS RAID RAIDERS

The Carter Cowboys went up against the tough Skyline Raiders for the City Championship and walked away victorious. This gave the Cowboys their 2nd city title in a row.

The first half was anyone's game. The score remained dead even at 0-0.

It wasn't until the last minute of the third quarter when halfback Bo Taylor ran from the Skyline 33 for the first score of the game.

Early in the fourth quarter Carter recovered a Raider fumble on the 36 yard line.

A few plays later Newhouse followed by Chambers gave Carter a 21-0 victory.

I got it John.

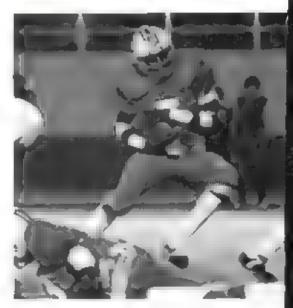

Carter puts the squeeze on.

Morrison fires over Skyline defense.

You run Turkey.

Step on me your dead.

Morrison sets foot.

Tight shorts?

I get by the window.

Backfield in motion.

Cowboys stand TALL.

COWBOYS CLIMB HILLS

The mighty Carter Cowboys came from behind November 28 to defeat the Highlanders 21-13.

Carter got on the board early in the game as Shannon Little went over from 2 yards out. Ray Paul's kick was good and the Cowboys lead 7-0.

Fort Worth's Brian Combs went 38 yards to tie the score up at 7-7.

Then again in the third period Combs went another 38 yards, however the extra point try was missed and they led 13-7.

Then toward the end of the third quarter Cowboy John Newhouse rambled 1 yard for a Carter T.D.

Midway through the fourth quarter Morrison passed to Chambers for the final score of the game.

LOBO'S LUCK OUT

The Carter Cowboys were defeated by the Longview Lobos with a score of 21-7, in a battle the Cowboys needed to keep in the playoffs.

Carter played a tough first half only allowing the Lobos 7 points and scoring 7 themselves.

But in the second half Carter was unable to cope with the pressure put on by the Lobos when they added 14 more points to the board; one of them on a spectacular punt run back.

One thing can be said about the Carter Cowboys however, they went into the game proud and walked out proud.

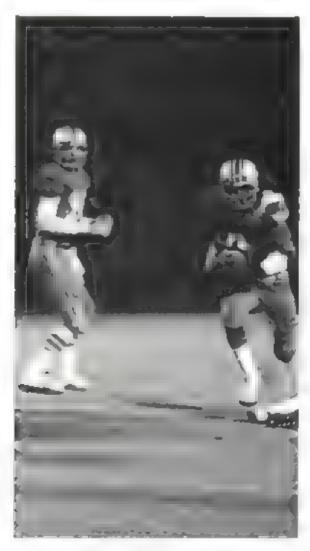

Carter's number one offense.

"Bottoms Up"

Carter prepares for battle.

Morrison gives to Taylor.

One face tells the whole story.

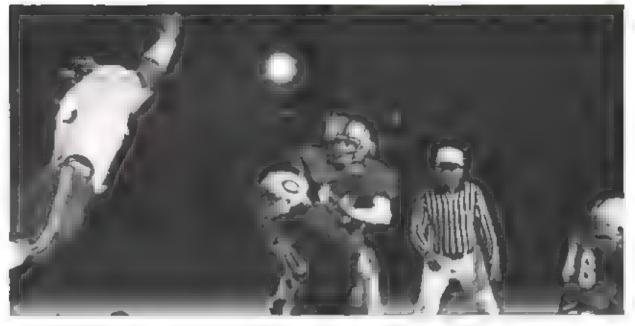

"I don't have it yet."

Greg brings poster to game.

Newhouse charges through.

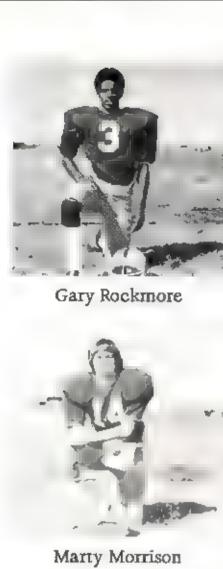

"No one told me they could fly too."

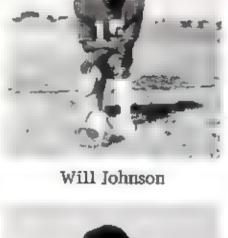

Team awaits decision.

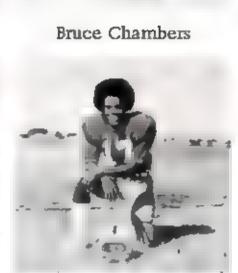

John (Ervin) comes through for 6 more.

TENNIS TEAM ON TOP

Tennis is widely becoming one of the most popular sports pastimes among people of all ages. With such tennis greats as Billie Jean King and old Bobby Riggs, the stars of Carter's own great team have to work hard for their recognition. You can see them almost any warm or, for that matter, cold sunny afternoon, serving, volleying or just plain bashing that little tennis ball around. This year's team is working up to a good season.

Carla demonstrates her professionalism on the first day of practice.

"Okay, us three against Coach."

"Who says it's a man's world."

"You jump it."

Carla stands ready.

"Who needs a racket."

"All I need now is a ball."

All sports require good grooming.

The Hall Monitors

This group has been the main reason for the excellent hall conditions at Carter this year. Their main goal is to keep the halls clear - and a fine job they did, too. Recognized as the best Monitor Team in the nation, all three of these young men received a letter of appreciation from the President. We are very proud to have such a wonderful group in charge here. They also insist upon good grooming for all of the students.

The Kimball Fan Club

NOTICE

DUE TO A LACK OF INTEREST THIS IS THE LAST YEAR WE WILL HAVE A KIMBALL FAN CLUB.

Left to Right:

Equal Rights for Whites Club

To promote fairness and equal rights, a new club has been formed. The members of this club feel that no-one should be discriminated against. One of their main projects this year was their "They Ain't All Bad" Seminar. However, the success of this effort was, to say the least, very minimal.

Left to right: June Bug, Leah Tard, Dearry Queen, Hans Zoff, Chip Monk, Della Ware, Leda Dogslife, Maida Pass, Anna Septic, and T. V. Dinners.

The Aquarium Club

Are you tired of sitting at home on those lonely weekends - staring at the tube? Then join the Aquarium Club. Make new friends - go on exciting outings! One of their trips was to the creek down the road a spell, where they frolicked in the mud. They even caught a Leech! The most fun, though, is the Annual Aquarium Show. Our club placed 1st in "The Oddest Fish" category! Good luck in the future kids!

THE ANNUAL STAFF

Surely a finer group cannot be found! Their ability to work so closely together has made all the difference. Difference in what, we don't know yet. Their favorite pastime this year was practicing the mystical arts of self defense. The group began with twenty members, but only six are still in existence.

Left to Right: Tom, Dick, Harry, Ted, Alice, and Bob.

FUTURE FARMERS OF AMERICA

The big project this year was "Our Friend Corn." As concerned citizens, this club's members wan to learn everything they can to presserve the food supply for the future generations. We think that their fine job on "corn" shows what goo hands we are in!

Left to right: Golda Fish, Ben Dover, Chad A. While, Anita Ficks, Bobbi Sox, and George Washington Sleptier.

The Homecoming Dance Committee

What fun this committee had! How many delightful hours did they spend working diligently on the dance! What a shame that the dance had to be cancelled, due to lack of student participation.

Future Housewives of America

Learning how to shop thriftfully and cook economically are this group's main concern. Here we see Cookie and Mabel testing the squash. They are really ready to catch that "lucky man."

Left to right: Cookie Crambles - Pres., and Mabel Syrup - V. Pres.

THE BRONCO BUSTERS

Our principal at David W. Carter High School, Mr. B. B. Rollings, has certainly made it easier for the Carter Cowboys to remain number one. His spirit is demonstrated by his participation in both the pep assemblies and daily activities. The consideration he has for the welfare of both the faculty and the students has brought us together at Carter. Because we are number one in Dallas, it seems only natural that our princiapl be number one.

Look at that smile!

Who could forget those announcements?

A MESSAGE TO THE YEARBOOK STAFF:

What can a sponsor say about the best annual staff a school could have? "Thank you" is too common, "You did a fantastic job" is too cold. Anything I could express verbally would not convey the appropriate feelings of both excitement and love I have for you. I can only hope these feelings were conveyed to you somehow.
